Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Thursday 23 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy with outbreaks of rain.

Today:
An overcast day with areas of hill fog. Outbreaks of rain throughout the day, but feeling milder with light southerly winds. Turning drier and brighter from the southwest later. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying dry into the evening with the skies slowly clearing overnight. Windy around the coasts but lighter winds inland and feeling mild. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Friday:
A bright start for many, but quickly turning cloudy with a band of rain approaching from the west. Rain becoming more persistent overnight, possibly turning wintry towards dawn. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Rain may continue through much of the Christmas weekend, possibly turning wintry in the west, most likely on Boxing Day. Chance of better weather Monday, although windy along coastlines.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.